CITY HALL PAINTING BIDS

B. Lovett reported that the City received three bids for the City Hall painting. The bids were kind of like comparing “apples to oranges” because of what was included and what was going to be potential add-on. It was his recommendation to reject the bids and rebid with more clarity. Motion was made by T. Dixon and seconded by J. Shay to reject the below bids and authorize to go back out to bid on the exterior painting.
